No. 584.—STEAM-RAILWAY FREIGHT SERVICE—TRAIN MILES, CAR MILES, TONNAGE AND RELATED AVERAGES: 1891 TO 1943

NOTE.—Figures prior to 1916 relate to years ended June 30, thereafter to calendar years. Switching and terminal roads excluded beginning with 1908, except as noted. The tonnage "per loaded car" for "all roads" is based on revenue tonnage only; and for "Class I roads" on revenue and nonrevenue tonnage. Tons are of 2,000 pounds.

No. 542.—STEAM RAILWAYS—REVENUE FREIGHT ORIGINATED AND CARRIED, BY COMMODITY GROUPS, ALL ROADS, 1906 TO 1915, CLASS I ROADS, 1916 TO 1943

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of tons of 2,000 pounds. Data relate to years ended June 30 prior to 1916, to calendar years thereafter. Switching and terminal roads excluded beginning with 1908. Figures for 1911 to 1915, inclusive, exclude class III roads but this affects the comparability very slightly; those for 1916 exclude both class II and class III, thereby reducing the grand total about 6 percent. Non-revenue freight is excluded; this is a large item in the case of a few commodities, notably coal.

No. 543.—STEAM-RAILWAY ACCIDENTS—NUMBER OF PERSONS KILLED AND INJURED, BY STATUS: 1891 TO 1943

NOTE.—For various reasons, including the fact that returns were required under different acts, the statistics are not strictly comparable. Prior to 1921, train accidents were those causing damage to railway property in excess of $150 or any damage and a resulting casualty. Thereafter they were considered as such when the damage exceeded $150 with or without a casualty. Where the damage is less than $150 and there is a reportable casualty it is classified as a train-service accident. Figures for years 1911-1915 include industrial and other nontrain accidents to employees only, and for years 1906-1910 do not cover switching and terminal roads. Otherwise the statement covers all reportable accidents, including those due to suicide, mental derangement, and attempting to escape custody.

No. 548.—ELECTRIC RAILWAYS—SUMMARY: 1890 TO 1937

NOTE.—The census of street railways, which was first taken in 1890, and which has been taken at quinquennial intervals through 1937 beginning with the inquiry for 1902, covers (1) all street railways, without regard to kind of motive power, and (2) all interurban railways using other than steam as motive power. The nonelectric railroads included are those operated principally by cable and gasoline engines. Operations of electrified divisions of steam-railway companies are not included. Figures in this table do not include data for motorbus and trolley-bus operations of electric street railways. (For motorbus and trolley-bus statistics from census reports, see source.)

¹ Excludes data for 22 companies, operating on a part-year basis. These companies reported 36,810,221 passengers; 9,108,009 car-miles; 1,042,866 car-hours; $2,388,295, operating revenue; and $2,412,010, operating expense.

² Includes certain companies in Pennsylvania which maintained separate organizations, though controlled through stock ownership by other companies. For 1912 these companies were treated as merged and not included in the number reported.

³ Includes small mileage of track lying outside United States.

⁴ Data incomplete. Some of the companies engaged in both light-and-power and electric-railway operations were unable to report separately the values of plant and equipment assignable to their railway activities.

⁵ Number reported as of June 30, for 1890, 1922, 1927, and 1933; for 1902, average for the year; for 1912, as of Sept. 16. Figures for 1937 represent an average of numbers reported on June 30 and Dec. 31.

⁶ Includes 334 trolley-bus operators.

⁷ Includes 29,721,000 trolley-bus passengers.

² Number of vehicles operated in regular-route intercity service.

¹ Class I airports are for the private owner of smaller type aircraft; class II, private owners of larger type aircraft and feeder transport aircraft; class III, present day transport aircraft; class IV and V, largest aircraft now in use and those planned for the immediate future.

² Indicates airports which exist but do not come up to Class I standards.

³ Includes Army, Navy, Army Operated and Navy Operated (the latter two are municipal or commercial airports temporarily taken over by the Army or Navy), C. A. P., miscellaneous Government and private.

⁴ Includes 1 unlighted C. A. A. Intermediate field.

19. Waterways, Water Traffic, and Shipping

[Data in this section cover the following areas unless otherwise indicated: From Board of Engineers of the United States Army, Bureau of Census, Bureau of Customs, and Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, United States customs area which includes Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, and, from Jan. 1, 1935, through Dec. 31, 1939, Virgin Islands; from United States Maritime Commission, continental United States.]

General note as to units of measurement.—"Cargo tonnage" represents weight of cargo in long tons (2,240 pounds) or short tons (2,000 pounds). All other tonnage figures refer to capacity of vessels. The terms gross and net tonnage refer to space measurement, 100 cubic feet being called 1 ton. Gross tonnage is the capacity of the entire space within the frames and the ceiling of the hull, together with those closed-in spaces above deck available for cargo, stores, passengers or crew, with certain minor exemptions. Net or registered tonnage is what remains after deducting from the gross tonnage the spaces occupied by the propelling machinery, fuel, crew quarters, master's cabin, and navigation spaces. It represents substantially space available for cargo and passengers. The net tonnage capacity of a ship recorded as "entered with cargo" may bear little relation to actual weight of cargo. Dead weight tonnage is the weight in long tons required to depress a vessel from light water line (that is, with only the machinery and equipment on board) to load line. It is therefore the weight of the cargo, fuel, etc., which a vessel is designed to carry with safety. Displacement tonnage (naval vessels) has reference to weight of the vessel itself with its normal equipment, fuel, etc.

² Excluding St. Marys Falls Canal traffic (116,678,000 tons in 1943) and additional Detroit River traffic (16,754,000 in 1943), data for which are already included in figures for Great Lakes traffic; also excluding duplications relating to rivers and canals themselves.

³ Principally coastwise and lake traffic passing through canals and connecting channels other than the St. Marys Falls Canal and the Detroit River.

⁴ Estimated from figures in this table on assumption that all deductions represent duplications in domestic traffic. There are, however, some minor duplications in figures for foreign traffic.

No. 560.—COMMERCE OF PRINCIPAL UNITED STATES OCEAN PORTS: 1943

[In thousands of short tons of 2,000 pounds. In addition to the commerce here shown, many of the ports have (1) commerce with ports on internal rivers and canals; (2) purely local port traffic, including, in the case of New York, Philadelphia, and San Francisco, what is called intraport traffic between parts of a harbor for which separate statistics are maintained. These forms of traffic, although the aggregate tonnage is large, are of much less economic importance than foreign and coastwise traffic]

¹ Sailing vessels, canal boats, and barges.² The decrease of tonnage arises principally from the registered tonnage having been corrected in 1815, 1829, and 1830 by striking off all vessels the registers of which were granted prior to 1815, which were supposed by the collectors to have been lost at sea, captured, etc.³ Figures as of Dec. 31 are latest available for publication. Later data, compiled by Treasury Department, Bureau of Customs, were not published during war period.⁴ Including Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands.⁵ Including Hawaii and Alaska.⁶ Not available.

20. Foreign Commerce of the United States

General note.—All foreign trade statistics in this section were compiled by the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census beginning May 1941. Prior to that time the statistics were compiled by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Annual statistics on foreign trade appear in the report, Foreign Commerce and Navigation, and monthly data appear in the Monthly Summary of Foreign Commerce of the United States. The release of current statistics to the public is governed by wartime security regulations which were considerably relaxed at the end of the war in Europe. In general, except for imports and exports of military, strategic, and critical commodities, statistics on foreign trade may be published 60 days after the close of the period to which they relate. Except as noted (as, for example, in table 617) the values stated are in United States dollars without reference to changes in the gold content of the dollar. (The statutory price of gold—$20.67 per ounce—in effect prior to Jan. 31, 1934, was changed on that date by Executive Order to $35 per ounce. Between Mar. 10, 1933, and Jan. 31, 1934, the foreign exchange value of the dollar was permitted to depreciate as a result of the restriction placed on gold shipments to foreign countries.) The geographic area covered by these statistics, except as noted, is the United States customs area, which includes Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, and from Jan. 1, 1935, through Dec. 31, 1939, the Virgin Islands (see headnote, table 596). Other explanations of the trade tables are given in the introduction to the annual report, Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States.

No. 590.—EXPORTABLE GOODS, PRODUCTION AND PROPORTION EXPORTED: 1909 TO 1943

[Agricultural production is gross income, excluding feed, seed, and waste. Manufactures represent value added by manufacture—census data through 1939 and approximations thereafter. Value of mine products in 1909, 1919, and 1939 are census figures, in 1929 census data plus petroleum products, and in other years, estimates based on data of the Bureau of Mines. As the figures are not adjusted for price changes, the increase or decrease in absolute values from period to period should be disregarded.]

No. 591.—EXPORTS AND IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE: 1791 TO 1944

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of dollars. For basis of dollar values, see general note, p. 524. Figures are for fiscal years ended Sept. 30, 1791 to 1842, and June 30, 1843 to 1915; calendar years thereafter. For calendar years 1900-15 and fiscal years 1925-44, see table 503. For total exports and imports by year prior to 1902, see table 591. Figures include gold and silver prior to 1821.

No. 595.—EXPORTS AND IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE, PER CAPITA: 1791 TO 1943

NOTE.—Export figures for 1791 to 1820 are based on total exports including reexports (the latter were then relatively large) and for 1821 to date, on exports of United States merchandise only, shown in table 591. Import figures for 1791 to 1820 are based on general imports shown in table 191, for 1821 to 1870, total imports less reexports, and for 1871 to date, imports for consumption, shown in table 620.

TABLE II
Gross Domestic Product, 1900-2080
The following table shows the projected gross domestic product (GDP) of the United States from 1900 to 2080. The GDP is measured in billions of dollars, and the table is divided into two main sections: historical data (1900-1999) and projected data (2000-2080). The projected data is based on the assumptions of the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) and the Congressional Budget Office (CBO). The table shows that the GDP of the United States has grown steadily over the past century, and is projected to continue to grow at a similar rate through 2080.

UNITED STATES MERCHANDISE AND IMPORTS—INDEXES
(PRICE), AND TOTAL VALUE: 1913 TO 1942

have been constructed by the so-called "ideal formula," quantities of the several articles as weighting factors of price. About 266 commodities were included in the direct index. It was then assumed that the prices of articles in each class were parallel with those of articles covered and their value was included in the aggregative totals from which the quantity index of quantity and unit value of total exports and imports was derived for the totals of the classes. In constructing the indexes the data for each subsequent year was compared with that preceding. The indexes were then put into a series by the chain method.

No. 614.—EXPORTS (INCLUDING REEXPORTS) BY CONTINENTS, COMMERCIAL REGIONS, AND COUNTRIES: 1926 TO 1942

[Because of changes in the grouping and the classification of countries effective January 1, 1942, continent and geographical area totals appearing in this table may differ from corresponding totals reported in previous issues of the Statistical Abstract. The country sequence within each geographical area is from north to south and west to east, rather than alphabetic as in former years. In the case of some countries, especially those having no seaports, there is considerable indirect trade by way of other countries, this being usually larger in the case of our exports to them than of our imports from them; for such countries the apparent balance of trade may be far from the true balance. A marked case of indirect trade is that of grain exported through Canada (mostly via Montreal) to Europe and reported as exported to Canada. Such grain shipments were especially large in the period 1920-29 and in 1938. Adjusted figures in which the grain is deducted from exports to Canada and North America and included in exports to Europe are given in table 495 of the 1935 Statistical Abstract and the Trade Promotion Bulletin Nos. 196 and 211. Figures are for calendar years.]

¹ As reported to Treasury Department by collectors of customs, subject in certain cases to subsequent refund as well as drawback. These figures are somewhat higher than duties as calculated on the basis of imports for consumption, as shown in table 620.

² Duties less cost of collection into Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands are turned into the Islands Treasury. Duties into the Virgin Islands are assessed under the tariff law of the Virgin Islands and not under the tariff act of the United States.

³ Not included in total.

⁴ Formerly San Antonio, changed to Laredo, effective Dec. 22, 1939.

⁵ Iowa included with Chicago, beginning Sept. 22, 1939.

⁶ Utah and Nevada included with San Francisco, effective Feb. 22, 1940.

No. 617.—EXPORTS (INCLUDING REEXPORTS) AND IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE, BY GROUPS OF CUSTOMS DISTRICTS: 1860 TO 1942

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of dollars. For basis of dollar values, except export figures for 1865 and 1870-78, see general note, p. 524. Export figures for those years represent mixed gold and currency values and hence do not agree with the specie values given for total exports in other tables. Figures cover fiscal years to and including 1915, calendar years beginning 1916. Import data are "general imports" through 1933; "imports for consumption" thereafter. Exports and imports of the interior districts, a small percentage of the total, are not included in this table.

No. 618.—EXPORTS (INCLUDING REEXPORTS) AND IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE BY PRINCIPAL CUSTOMS DISTRICTS 1860 TO 1942

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of dollars. For basis of dollar values, except export figures for 1865 and 1870-78, see general note, p. 524. Export figures for those years represent mixed gold and currency values. Figures cover fiscal years to and including 1915; thereafter, calendar years. Import data are "general imports" through 1933; "imports for consumption" thereafter. Areas of districts were rearranged July 1, 1913. Prior to that date some of the districts were more restricted. However, in most cases this change only slightly affects the comparability of the figures. Prior to 1914 the statistics given in the table for Buffalo include the (former) districts of Buffalo Creek and Niagara; those for Michigan include the (former) districts of Superior, Huron, and Detroit; and those for Massachusetts and Maryland were the former districts of Boston and Baltimore, respectively.

No. 620.—IMPORTS ENTERED FOR CONSUMPTION AND DUTIES THEREON: 1821 TO 1942

NOTE.—For basis of dollar values, see general note, p. 524. From 1821 to 1895, inclusive, the figures of import values represent total imports less reexports, and for 1897 and later years imports entered for consumption. The "ratio of duties to total" is based upon the values of imports shown in the table. Figures cover fiscal years ended Sept. 30, 1821 to 1842, and June 30, 1843 to 1915; calendar years thereafter.

No. 621.—IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE, FREE AND DUTIABLE

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of dollars. For basis of dollar values, see general note, p. 524. Figures Data are "general imports" through 1933; "imports for consumption" beginning 1934. The percentage of the dutiable general imports are reported as reexported than of the free general imports. Moreover, in bond for 1933, carpet wool used for making carpets and, for 1922 to 1928, wheat imported for milling. For adjusted figures see table 492 of the 1935 issue of the Statistical Abstract.

³ Fiscal years.

AND PERCENT FREE, BY ECONOMIC CLASSES: 1821 to 1942

cover years ended Sept. 30, 1821 to 1840, and June 30, 1850 to 1915; calendar years thereafter, except as noted. free in general imports is normally slightly lower than in imports for consumption because relatively more in the period 1922-1933, there is an understatement of the free goods in general imports because, for 1922 to export were reported as dutiable when entered, although no duty was ultimately paid on these products.

21. Commerce of Territories and Possessions

GENERAL NOTE.—All statistics in this section, except as noted, were compiled by the Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of the Census beginning May 1941; prior to that time, data were compiled by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. These statistics appear in the Monthly Summary of Foreign Commerce of the U. S., December issue. Restrictions on the publication of these data were considerably relaxed at the end of the war in Europe. In general, except for imports and exports of military, strategic, and critical commodities, statistics on foreign trade may be published sixty days after the close of the period to which they relate. In the general foreign trade statistics of the United States presented in the preceding section, the Philippines and Virgin Islands, except 1935 through 1939 for the Virgin Islands, are treated as foreign countries and their trade with the United States is included while their trade with other countries is not included. On the other hand, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and Alaska, and for 1935-39, Virgin Islands, are treated as integral parts of the United States, so that trade between them and the continental United States is not included, while trade between them and foreign countries is included; each of these territories appears as a separate customs district. Neither trade of American Samoa and Guam with foreign countries nor shipments between them and United States are included in the general tables on foreign trade. See also table 596, p. 530.

The tables in this section present the total foreign trade of each of the United States Territories and possessions and show separately the trade with continental United States (unless otherwise indicated) and with foreign countries, including other United States Territories and possessions. For basis of dollar values, see general note, p. 524.

¹ The discrepancy between the United States figures of exports to the Philippines prior to 1911 and the Philippine figures of imports from the United States in corresponding periods is due chiefly to the fact that the Philippine import figures prior to that year omit merchandise imported free of duty for the use of the Government or for use in construction and equipment of railways in the islands, under the act of Feb. 6, 1905, while the United States returns omit only Government supplies carried by Government vessels.

² Continental U. S. through 1938; includes outlying areas thereafter.

22. Irrigation and Drainage

[Data in this section relate to Continental United States]

No. 633.—IRRIGATION ENTERPRISES—SUMMARY: 1910 TO 1940

NOTE.—Data are for the 17 Western States and Arkansas and Louisiana. Tables 633 to 642 relate to irrigation enterprises of all types, including those operated by individual farmers. They are based on reports of the management of the enterprises. An enterprise is defined as "an independent irrigation establishment and includes the works for supplying water and the land for which water is supplied, except that the cost and value of the land is not included in the capital invested."

² Not available.

³ Relates to total area in enterprises; irrigable areas not reported.

⁴ Does not include cost of operation and maintenance for rice growing districts in Gulf States; consequently figure is not comparable with those for later years.

³ Based on irrigated area in enterprises reporting cost of maintenance and operation.

² Not available.

³ Includes data for Lespedeza hay which is not shown separately.

⁴ Data available only for Arizona and California.

⁵ Computed by using acreages grown alone in all States except California, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington, where total acreages were used. ⁶ Running square bales of lint cotton, counting round as half bales.

reporters, mostly farmers, report for their own and nearby farms on some 80 crops and scores of other items pertaining to agricultural production and farm family living.

The most extensive of the survey data are gathered by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics from questionnaires handled in cooperation with the Post Office Department through its rural mail carriers. These surveys obtain livestock data in June and December and crop acreage data in October. For each survey the rural carrier distributes 10 to 20 cards to farmers on his route. The farmer is asked to complete his questionnaire for his own farm and return the card to his mail box.

In the data prepared by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, estimates of crop acreage and production for the census years are set up currently on available information. Later, if necessary, these data are revised to a level based largely on the census enumerations. The estimates for intercensal years are based on sample data obtained each year from individual reporters. This information is supplemented by other data, such as State assessors' enumerations of agricultural information, crop meter frontage measurements, reports of carlot shipments, warehouse receipts, local surveys, personal observations by field statisticians as well as reports from other sources having a knowledge of farming, agricultural production, and processing. Cotton acreage and production are also based on sample data and, in large measure, on ginning information gathered by the Bureau of the Census. Usually, all known sources of information pertaining to agriculture in general, from the farm to the consumer's household are tapped for basic facts used in compiling current statistics on agriculture.

Cash income is the cash receipts from farm marketings and represents the quantities of crops, livestock, and livestock products sold by farmers multiplied by the prices received per unit of production at the local market. Gross farm income includes Government payments, value of farm products consumed on the farm, rental value of farm homes, as well as cash receipts from farm marketings.

Information on prices received by farmers for products they sell and prices paid for articles they buy for production and family living are obtained from about 85,000 farmers, local merchants, and handlers of agricultural products. Season average prices received by farmers are calculated by weighting midmonth prices by monthly sales during the crop marketing season, beginning with the first month when a particular crop harvest begins.

The index numbers of prices received and of prices paid by farmers consist of the aggregate value of a fixed quantity of goods, based on current midmonth prices for these commodities, expressed as a percentage of the aggregate value of the same quantity of goods in the base period. The ratio of the index of prices received to the index of prices paid by farmers measures the monthly variation in the per unit exchange value of farm products.

Data on imports and exports are now compiled by the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, and are published in the annual Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States. (See section 20, Foreign Commerce of the United States.) The official trade statistics based on the fiscal year are usually preferable to data presented on a calendar year basis, for use in comparing imports and exports with crop production since, for most crops, they coincide more nearly with the crop year.

These general notes on agriculture apply also to the sections on farm production and related statistics, on farm animals and animal products, and on farm crops and food-stuffs, which follow this section.

No. 653.—POPULATION, FARMS, AND FARM PROPERTY—SUMMARY: 1850 TO 1940

NOTE.—Figures for 1850 relate to June 1, for 1910 to Apr. 15, for 1920, 1925, and 1935 to Jan. 1, and for 1930 and 1940 to Apr. 1, except that the classification of land according to use refers to the preceding year. Leaders indicate that data are not available.

² For definition of urban and rural, see p. 2.

³ The 1930, 1935, and 1940 farm population comprises all persons living on farms without regard to occupation; the 1920 figures include also those farm laborers (and their families) who, while not living on farms, lived outside the limits of any incorporated place. A further difference is due to the fact that the 1920 and 1935 censuses were taken in January, while the 1930 and 1940 censuses were taken in April, when the number of persons on farms is appreciably larger. For farm population by States see table 12, p. 15.

⁴ Data collected for 1925 are not strictly comparable with figures for other years.

⁵ Includes cropland harvested, crop failure, cropland lying idle or fallow, and plowable pasture.

⁶ "Improved land"; figures nominally include land available for crops and land occupied by buildings, yards, and barnyards. ⁷ Value is of specific farm property, not all farm property.

⁹ Figures for 1910 exclude value of young animals when enumerated separately. For description of items for other years, see note 1 on "Livestock," table 661, p. 606.

No. 663.—FARMS BY MAJOR SOURCE OF INCOME AND VALUE OF ALL FARM PRODUCTS: 1939

[Totals and the group "$10,000 and over" are from complete tabulations of 1940 Census reports for individual farms; all other data are based upon a 2-percent sample of these reports, expanded and adjusted to agree with recorded totals. Figures marked with an asterisk (*) have a coefficient of variation of approximately 10 percent or more. Value of all farm products represents value of those sold, traded, or used by farm households]

No. 666.—NUMBER OF FARMS CROSS-CLASSIFIED BY TOTAL VALUE OF FARM PRODUCTS, 1939, AND TENURE OF FARM OPERATOR, APR. 1, 1940

[Totals for "All farm operators" are the 1940 Census recorded totals. For tenure groups, the totals are based upon a 2-percent sample of the reports for individual farms reporting less than $10,000 value of all farm products plus a complete tabulation of the reports for farms reporting "$10,000 and over" value of all farm products. Figures marked with an asterisk (*) have a coefficient of variation of approximately 10 percent or more. Value of all farm products represents value of those sold, traded, or used by farm households.]

¹ All tax data for 1930 are for farms reporting both total taxes and real-estate taxes.

² Not available.

³ Relates only to property owned by the operator.

⁴ Differences between these totals and totals for farms regardless of additional land owned do not represent data for operating owners who owned additional land. Some operators did not make a report as to this item. For 1930, operators who did not report as to this item are included with those operators who reported that they owned no additional land.

FERTILIZER CONSUMPTION

No. 695.—FERTILIZER CONSUMPTION, 1880 TO 1943, AND BY STATES, 1941, 1942, AND 1943

[Figures are based on tag sales, records of Government officials, or estimates. Beginning 1935, figures include tonnage distributed by Agricultural Adjustment Administration and by Tennessee Valley Authority, data for the latter representing fiscal years ended June 30. Data for phosphate rock used in Illinois have been excluded. Such data have only been available since 1939 and consequently have been excluded from annual comparisons. In addition to tonnage for consumption, shown in the table below, fertilizers and fertilizer materials produced in continental United States and exported to island possessions are as follows: To Hawaii, 1937, 67,200 tons; 1938, 35,250 tons; 1939, 49,600 tons; 1940, 63,450 tons. To Puerto Rico, 1937, 128,900 tons; 1938, 90,250 tons; 1939, 100,200 tons; 1940, 153,500 tons. Data for exports in 1941, 1942, and 1943 are not available for publication]

No. 707.—FARM PRODUCTION—INDEXES OF VOLUME, BY MAJOR GROUPS OF PRODUCTS: 1925 TO 1944

NOTE.—1935-39=100. Indexes are based on estimates of production for sale and for consumption in the farm home. Products fed to livestock or used for seed are not included. Calendar-year production of livestock and livestock products is compared with crop production of the same year. Commodities included in the index contributed about 93 percent of the gross farm income during 1935-39.

25. Farm Animals and Animal Products

GENERAL NOTE

The data in this section are, for the most part, from the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, and from various bureaus in the United States Department of Agriculture. In general, statistics for agriculture census years are from the Bureau of the Census. Estimates for intervening years, and adjustments, where necessary, to a January 1 basis are from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. (See general note to sec. 23.)

For each decade from 1840 through 1900, the Census of Agriculture was taken as of June 1. The four decennial censuses since then have been taken as of April 15, 1910; January 1, 1920; April 1, 1930; and April 1, 1940. The 1925 and 1935 quinquennial Censuses of Agriculture were taken as of January 1. From January to April, there may be material changes in livestock inventories due to births, deaths, farm slaughter, purchases, and sales. For most of the country, April 1 is well into the season of the greatest number of livestock births, therefore, recently born animals were excluded from the 1940 enumeration. The inquiries were so worded as to include in the enumeration of April 1, 1940, only horse and mule colts and calves over 3 months old; pigs and kids over 4 months old; lambs over 6 months old; and poultry over 4 months old.

For some species of domestic livestock, there are comparatively short, cyclic fluctuations in numbers, even though the trend over a long period of time may be definitely in one direction. A single census may be taken at a time when such a cycle is at the peak or at the trough of numbers and hence gives no true indication of the long-time trend.

Annual inventory numbers of livestock on farms prepared by the Department of Agriculture together with estimates of livestock, dairy and poultry production are based on information furnished by individual farmers, supplemented by State assessors' data in a number of States, and by such records as brand inspections, rail and truck shipments, and inspected slaughter. The level for these inventories is based in large part on census enumerations for years when census data are available.

No. 716.—DOMESTIC ANIMALS ON FARMS—NUMBER AND VALUE: 1880 TO 1944

NOTE.—For census years prior to 1910 and for Jan. 1 estimates by the Dept. of Agriculture, animals of all ages are included except in figures for cattle and sheep, 1880 and 1890, which are nominally censuses of calves and lambs, respectively. The difference in date of enumeration affects the comparability of the census figures for all classes and especially for swine.

² Census figures for 1910 are for animals over 3½ months old; 1920, 1925, and 1935, animals of all ages. 1930 and 1940, animals over 3 months old.

⁴ Census figures for 1910 are for sheep and lambs over 3½ months old; 1920, 1925, and 1935, sheep and lambs of all ages; 1930 and 1940, sheep and lambs over 6 months old. Jan. 1 estimates are for stock sheep.

⁵ Census figures for 1910 are for hogs and pigs over 3½ months old; 1920, 1925, and 1935, hogs and pigs of all ages; 1930, hogs and pigs over 3 months old; 1940, hogs and pigs over 4 months old.

NO. 717.—DOMESTIC ANIMALS AND CHICKENS ON FARMS—NUMBER AND VALUE, BY KIND, AND FARMS REPORTING: 1930, 1935, AND 1940

NOTE.—Data for 1930 and 1940 are as of Apr. 1, and for 1935 as of Jan. 1. Owing to the difference in the date of enumeration, the figures for 1935 are not closely comparable with those for other years. The total value of all livestock for which data were collected at each census is shown in table 653, p. 597. Available data for certain classes not shown in the table below are as follows: Turkeys over 3 months old, 1935, 5,382,000, valued at $11,668,000; turkeys over 4 months old, 1940, 4,362,000, valued at $7,462,000. Hives of bees (on farms and elsewhere), 1930, 3,108,000, valued at $13,632,000; 1940, 2,277,000, valued at $7,326,000.

NO. 781.—MEATS AND LARD—PRODUCTION, FOREIGN TRADE, AND CONSUMPTION, BY KIND: 1936 TO 1943

NOTE.—All amounts, except per capita, in millions of pounds. Pork production represents total carcass weight, less raw fat from carcass which was rendered into lard. Other meat production represents dressed carcass weight only, with edible byproducts excluded. Lard production represents rendered weight of lard. Uninspected production includes farm, retail, and nonfederally inspected wholesale slaughter. Exports and imports of meats comprise the several kinds of meat converted to a dressed carcass-weight basis. Lard exports represent rendered lard, including neutral lard. Exports include shipments to Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and Virgin Islands. Consumption represents production plus imports less exports, with allowance for changes in storage stocks. Figures for recent years are subject to revision.

No. 743.—WOOL—PRODUCTION, IMPORTS, AND EXPORTS: 1839 to 1943

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of pounds. Production, except census data, is estimated and is for calendar years; figures for 1909 and later years have been revised because of revised estimates for number of sheep, based on 1935 census data. Pulled wool is included beginning 1900 and was probably included for 1870 to 1899, though the exact basis of the estimates for these years is not known. Figures for 1839, 1845, and 1859 include only fleeces. Exports and imports for 1839 are for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30; for 190 and 1859, fiscal years ended June 30; subsequently, calendar years. Imports and foreign exports prior to 1914 and domestic exports for all years include half of the Angora goat, alpaca, and other like animals.

² Shorn wool reported "greasy" plus pulled wool reported "greasy" raised to a greasy shorn basis, and shorn and pulled wool reported "scoured" raised to a greasy shorn basis, conversion factors varying with class, origin, grade, and whether shorn or pulled.

³ Wool regarded as more or less suitable for apparel purposes; formerly "Combing and clothing."

¹ Includes, in addition to production in the dairy products industries, data for similar products made in establishments classified in other industries.

² Not including data for cheese blended or processed, amounting to 244,315,000 pounds for 1937 and 286,284,000 pounds for 1939, valued at $45,727,000 and $48,714,000, respectively. See census report on "Special dairy products." ³ Includes data for a small amount of Neuchâtel cheese. ⁴ No data.

⁵ Made for sale as such, unfrozen. ⁶ Production in the meat-packing industry only.

⁷ Production in the meat packing industry only. Total production in all industries, as shown in census report on "Sausages, prepared meats, and other meat products—not made in meat-packing establishments," is as follows: Cooked hams—1937, 213,136,000 pounds valued at $69,488,000; 1939, 220,598,000 pounds valued at $63,297,000. Canned meats—1937, 240,767,000 pounds valued at $48,183,000, and canned meats valued at $3,913,000 (for which no quantity was reported) made in the "Food preparations not elsewhere classified" industry; 1939, 341,425,000 pounds valued at $65,770,000. Canned sausage—1937, 28,073,000 pounds valued at $5,999,000; 1939, 28,897,000 pounds valued at $5,664,000. Sausages and sausage products, other than canned—1937, 1,592,493,000 pounds valued at $283,133,000; 1939, 1,673,570,000 pounds valued at $273,806,000. ⁸ Total production, as shown in Census report on "Sausage casings—not made in meat-packing establishments," is valued as follows: 1937, $27,215,000; 1939, $24,758,000.

⁹ Wool detached from sheep pelts in meat-packing establishments.

² Corn, oats, barley, sorghums for grain, wheat, rye, buckwheat, rice, flaxseed, cotton, tame and wild hay, sorghums for forage and silage, dry edible beans, soybeans for beans, peanuts, potatoes, sweetpotatoes, tobacco, sorgo sirup, sugarcane, sugar beets, and cowpeas.

³ Asparagus, snap beans, cabbage, sweet corn, cucumbers, peas, spinach, and tomatoes.

⁴ Asparagus, snap beans, cabbage, cantaloupes (including honeydews, honeyballs, and miscellaneous melons), carrots, cauliflower, celery, cucumbers, lettuce, onions, peas, spinach, tomatoes, watermelons, beets, eggplant, and peppers. Production of farm gardens, home gardens, and most of market gardens excluded.

⁵ Apples, peaches, pears, grapes, plums, prunes, oranges, grapefruit, lemons, apricots, strawberries, cranberries, and olives.

No. 749.—ACREAGE LOSSES—ESTIMATED ACREAGES OF CERTAIN CROPS PLANTED AND NOT HARVESTED: 1929 TO 1944

[Acreage in thousands. Acreages for winter wheat represent areas sown the preceding fall and not harvested, thus including considerable land subsequently planted to other crops. Acreages for cotton include more than 10 million acres plowed under in 1933. Acreages of grains cut for hay are excluded. Totals do not show total crop losses chiefly because of large acreage of tame and wild hay land which produced only pasturage in some dry seasons.]

¹ Acreage includes land in fruit orchards, vineyards, and planted nut trees (3,066,176 acres in 1929, 6,220,679 acres in 1934, and 5,044,932 acres in 1939) which was not reported in 1919; horticultural specialties (55,180 acres in 1919 and 157,404 acres in 1939); specified annual legumes (3,037,880 acres in 1939) grown alone. (Acreage shown for individual legumes is only that from which nuts, beans, or peas were harvested in 1939.) Values include horticultural specialties ($106,145,000 for 1919, $145,000 for 1929, and $129,575,000 for 1939). Exclusive acreage of annual legumes saved for hay (3,067,710 acres in 1929, 9,300,946 acres in 1934, and 7,187,327 acres in 1939). ² "Kafir and milo," prior to 1929; sorghum seed included 1919. ³ Acreage grown alone. Not all harvested for grain or seed as acreage also includes that for hay and that which was graded. Some grain or seed harvested from acreage grown with other crops. ⁴ Does not include sorghum for silage. ⁵ Exclusive of those grown in farm gardens. ⁶ Values represent farm gardens and vegetables harvested for sale, except for 1934; for that year, value represents farm gardens only. The acreage for all years represents vegetables harvested for sale only. ⁷ Prior to 1929, nominally sugarcane either for sugar or sirup or both. Acreage includes sugarcane for seed and other purposes not specified where specific reports were available. ⁸ For all purposes. ⁹ Production for sugar or sale to mills was 2,992,000 tons in 1929 and 5,396,000 tons in 1939; production of sirup was 16,190,000 gallons in 1929 and 16,296,000 gallons in 1939. ¹⁰ Not comparable with earlier years. ¹¹ Including tangerines in 1919 and tangerines, mandarins, etc., in 1929 and 1939. ¹² Less than $900.

¹ Figures for 1800 to 1895 represent commercial movement, as given by Dan Talmage's Sons Co.² Figures for the years 1810 to 1865 include linters; excluded in subsequent years.³ Louisiana and Texas, 1909 to 1923; Louisiana only, 1924 to 1927; Louisiana and Florida, beginning 1928.⁴ Beginning 1899, ginnings as reported by Bureau of the Census. Figures for some years include small amounts of Baja California, Mexico, cotton ginned in United States. Round bales counted as half bales.⁵ Gross weight. Figures prior to 1899 compiled by Bureau of the Census from data published by Department of Agriculture. See also note 10, table 752, p. 687.⁶ Exports.⁷ Census figures for the previous year.⁸ Figures shown for 1870, 1875, and 1880 represent the estimated average production for 1863-71, 1874-77 and 1880-82, respectively.⁹ Ginnings.¹⁰ Not yet available.

No. 752.—PRINCIPAL CROPS—ACREAGE, PRODUCTION, AND VALUE: 1866 TO 1944

NOTE.—Tons are of 2,000 pounds. For weights of the units of measurement for principal products, see Appendix, p. 954. The approximate weights of units of measurement for other products are as follows: Number of pounds to a bushel—sweetpotatoes, 55; sorghums for grain, 56; clover seed, 60. Number of pounds to a barrel of cranberries, 100. Prices and yields for the periods are weighted averages except for cotton and cottonseed, which are simple averages of prices and yields for the individual years. Acreage, production, and yield of all crops have been revised to census data.

² Received by farmers. Beginning 1908, prices are season average prices for the crop-marketing season; prior thereto, Dec. 1 prices. Prices for 1937 through 1944 for corn, 1938 through 1944 for wheat, and 1940 through 1944 for rye, include an allowance for unredeemed loans at average loan value.

² Received by farmers. Beginning with 1908 for potatoes and cotton, 1910 for sweetpotatoes, and 1909 for cottonseed, prices are season average prices. Figures for prior years are Dec. 1 prices. For 1933, 1934, 1937, 1938, and 1940 season average prices for cotton crops include an allowance for unredeemed loans at average loan value.

³ Average for 8 years.

⁴ Average for 6 years.

⁵ Average for 7 years.

⁶ Average for 4 years.

⁷ Includes 7,462,000 bushels in 1928, 66,000 bushels in 1931, and 2,175,000 bushels in 1933 not harvested on account of market conditions. Price and value apply only to the harvested portion of the crop.

⁸ State production figures, which conform with census annual ginning enumeration, with allowance for cross State ginnings, rounded to thousands and added for United States totals. Cotton grown in Baja California, ginned in California from 1913 to 1924, has been excluded.

⁹ Production is in running bales prior to 1899; 500-pound gross weight bales thereafter.

¹⁰ Data for 1909 and 1910.

¹¹ Area in cultivation July 1 less removal of acreage reported by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, less abandonment on area not under contract.

¹² Includes an allowance for unredeemed loans at season average price; 1944 price is season average to Dec. 1.

¹⁰ Received by farmers. See also notes on prices for each crop.

¹² Based on the reported price of grain sorghums.

¹⁸ Equivalent solid acreage.

¹⁹ Prices are season average prices, prices of beans for cleaned beans.

²⁰ Average for 1929 and 1930.

²¹ Bags of 100 pounds (uncleaned).

²² Farm value of dry edible beans equals the price of cleaned beans applied to the production of clean beans rather than to the total production.

²³ Average for 1924 and 1925.

²⁴ Average for 1919 and 1920.

²⁵ Dec. 1 prices, 1916 to 1931; beginning 1932, season average prices.

²⁶ Includes 5,436,000 pounds in 1935, 4,365,000 pounds in 1937, 3,140,000 pounds in 1938, and 2,814,000 pounds in 1939, not available for marketing because of economic conditions and the marketing agreements allotments. Prices and values are computed on the harvested crop.

ceived by farmers. Prices are as of Dec. 1 except as noted.

ices are season average prices beginning 1919; Dec. 1 prices theretofore.

c. 1 price. Prior to 1942, price of sweet sorghums for forage and hay.

erage for 1929 and 1930.

or to 1939, data are for 7 States. Production figures include fruit consumed on farms, sold locally, ed for manufacturing, as well as that shipped; they exclude fruit which ripened on the trees but stroyed prior to picking. Figures relate to the crop produced from the bloom of the year shown. lifornia the picking season usually extends from about Oct. 1 to Dec. 31 of the following year. In tates, the season begins about Oct. 1.

ices are season average.

t content of boxes varies. In California and Arizona, the approximate average is 77 lbs.; in other 90 lbs.

usion average returns to growers. Price and value apply to entire crop exclusive of that portio d to charity, unharvested, and/or eliminated on account of market conditions. (See note 3.) are equivalent packing-house-door returns for all methods of sale and are weighted by production in U. S. averages.

duction includes the following quantities donated to charity, unharvested, and/or eliminated on t of market conditions (1,000 boxes): 1933, 977; 1934, 1,395; 1935, 614; 1936, 1,023; 1937, 1,204; 1938, 339, 1,236; 1940, 1,322; 1941, 762; 1942, 654; 1943, 830. Price and value are computed on the remaining crop.

No. 762.—COTTON AND COTTONSEED—ACREAGE, PRODUCTION, AND VALUE, STATES: 1911 TO 1944

[Cotton production excludes linters. Figures for production in some States differ slightly from figures on ginnings due to ginnings in 1 State of cotton grown in another. Where figures are not available for the individual States, separate data are not available for the entire period but are included in United States totals. Values shown are for the marketing season or crop year and should not be confused with calendar year income. Yields and prices for the periods are simple averages of figures for individual years. Tons are of 2,000 pounds]

¹ Growth of 9 months in Louisiana and 12 months in Florida. Sugar campaign usually not ended before February in Louisiana and April in Florida, following season of growth of cane.

³ Based on the ratio of 100 pounds of raw sugar to 93.46 pounds of refined sugar.

⁴ Not including sirup production. See table 774. ⁵ Preliminary.

² Beet sugar not converted to raw prior to 1909. Refined reduced to raw basis by multiplying by 1.07.

³ For 1900 to 1906, shipments to the United States.

⁴ Statistics for 1874 to 1889 represent exports. Normal grinding season begins Oct. 1. In 1933, production was from grindings of Oct. 1, 1933, to Dec. 31, 1934; beginning 1934, from grindings of the next calendar year.

⁵ Exports 1871 to 1911, production 1912 and subsequently. Includes production of muscovado and papeha, low grades of sugar mostly for domestic consumption.

⁶ Less than 500 tons.

⁷ One year only.

⁸ Not available.

⁹ Louisiana and Texas 1909 to 1923; Louisiana only 1924 to 1927; Louisiana and Florida beginning 1928.

¹ Beginning 1910, stocks on hand are taken into account. Figures for 1910-20 are for cane sugar only; 1922-34 includes stocks of raw cane sugar in all ports and beet sugar held by factories, according to trade sources. Beginning 1935, includes stocks of raw and refined sugar held by refiners, by importers and distributors of direct consumption sugar, and by beet sugar factories, as reported by the Sugar Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

² Beet sugar converted to raw at the rate of 1.075 through 1920.

³ Includes Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines; Virgin Islands included beginning July 1, 1917.

⁴ No account taken of sugar imported in other forms. Imports from the Philippine Islands excluded beginning July 1, 1900, and from Virgin Islands beginning July 1, 1917; reexports deducted through 1910; imports for consumption beginning 1935.

⁵ Includes shipments to Hawaii and Puerto Rico for all years, to Alaska beginning 1933, and the Virgin Islands beginning Jan. 1, 1935. Excludes direct exports to foreign countries through customs districts of noncontiguous territories.

⁶ Sugar used in the manufacture of other commodities for export on which drawback was paid, taken into account beginning 1910.

⁷ Not available for publication.

⁸ Raw sugar converted to refined by multiplying by the following factors: For years prior to 1922, 0.9308; 1922-30, Cuba and Hawaii, 0.9358; Puerto Rico, 0.9393; Philippine Islands, 0.95; all others, 0.932; beginning 1931, Hawaii, 0.9617; Puerto Rico, Philippine Islands, and Virgin Islands, 0.946; Cuba and all others, 0.9418.

Source: 1875 to 1909, computed from production as reported by the Department of Agriculture, and exports, imports, and shipments as reported by the Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce; thereafter, based on data in tables 779 and 780.

No. 782.—COTTON—PRODUCTION, CONSUMPTION, EXPORTS, IMPORTS, PRICES, AND CARRY-OVER: 1905 TO 1944

NOTE.—All figures, except average net weight and price, in thousands of bales. Production figures relate to crop of preceding year and are compiled from individual reports of ginnings. Beginning 1911, price per pound represents average price received by growers, as computed by Department of Agriculture; for earlier years, it is average price of average grade marketed in New Orleans prior to April 1 of following year. Consumption figures relate to 12 months during which crop of specified year was chiefly marketed, and not to calendar year. Export and import figures (compiled by Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce through April 1941, Bureau of Census thereafter) relate to 12 months beginning Sept. 1 for years prior to 1915, and to 12 months beginning Aug. 1, thereafter. Figures for linters are included in those for consumption prior to 1909, and in export figures prior to 1915. Separate figures for linters prior to those years not available. See 1937 Statistical Abstract, table 659, for figures for years prior to 1905.

No. 792.—CORN, WHEAT, AND OATS—COMMERCIAL STOCKS, BY MONTHS: 1934-35 TO 1943-44

NOTE.—All figures in thousands of bushels. Number of pounds to a bushel: Wheat, 60; corn, 56; oats, 48. Figures represent domestic grain in store in public and private elevators at terminal markets and at vessels or barges in harbors of lake and seaboard ports; they do not include grain in transit, stocks in mills or elevators attached to mills, or private stocks intended for local use. Stocks are as reported on Sunday nearest the first of each month. Official statistics were not compiled prior to January 1927. Real-street's visible supply is given for earlier years in the 1935 and previous issues of the Statistical Abstract.

27. Forest and Forest Products

GENERAL NOTE

The Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, and the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, are the principal Government agencies engaged in the collection and publication of statistics of forest land, forest industries, and forest products. The Forest Service, through its forest survey activities, is making an inventory of the forest resource and is measuring rates of forest growth and drain. A number of reports for survey areas have been published. Other publications of the Forest Service include data on stumpage and log prices, lumber consumption and distribution, lumber used in manufacturing, and fire statistics. The Statistical Supplement to the Annual Report of the Chief of the Forest Service carries statistics of the administration of the national forests.

The Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, publishes information on forest industries and products in reports of the Census of Manufacturers, in addition to annual reports of the Census of Forest Products. The Bureau of the Census also publishes statistics of foreign trade in forest products. Information on the domestic movement of forest products is reported by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Association of American Railways.

The Bureau of Agricultural and Industrial Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture publishes annual reports of the production of naval stores.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor publishes statistics of wholesale lumber prices monthly and annually.

The Timber Products and Pulp and Paper series of the Industry Reports, published by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in cooperation with other Government agencies, carry forest products statistics which have been developed to meet current needs for information.

A number of forest products trade associations and trade journals collect and publish statistics of forest products, production, markets, shipments, inventories, etc.

The completeness and reliability of published statistics of forests and forest products vary considerably. The data for forest land area and stand are, of course, much more reliable for areas which have been surveyed than for those areas which have not been covered. Forest fire statistics for federal lands are considered much better than for private lands, though too much reliance should not be placed in any estimates of fire damage or causes of fires.

In the field of forest products, data for lumber production and other manufactured products such as veneer and plywood, pulp and paper, cooperage, naval stores, etc. are much more complete than for the primary forest products such as poles and pilings, fuelwood, and fence posts. As explained in the headnote to the following table, however, the data for lumber production are subject to certain limitations because of incomplete coverage. Information for pulp and paper, and plywood, on the other hand, are believed to be practically complete. Statistics relating to average value of lumber sawed may be subject to some special limitations due to underrepresentation of small mills.

¹ In continental United States; includes National Forests, Interior, Soil Conservation Service, TVA, Public Domain, etc.

² In continental United States and Hawaii. Data reported to Forest Service by its field offices, cooperating agencies, other Government bureaus, and similar sources. Statistics on unprotected areas based on State estimates only.

³ Prior to 1939 forest area included total area needing protection. Beginning with 1939, this area included only forest area needing protection, which accounts for reduction in areas between 1938 and 1939.

⁴ Included in State and private forests, protected area.

¹ Includes both saw timber and cordwood trees. The cubic volumes include the tops and limbs, not the bark.

² Includes only timber of saw timber size. Lumber items include allowances for logging waste which might have been utilized.

³ Lumber tally measure.

⁴ A square is considered equivalent to 800 pieces.

⁵ 1936 figures. No later data available.

No. 808.—LUMBER—PRODUCTION, BY KIND OF WOOD, AND AVERAGE MILL VALUE

[Data are not strictly comparable because of varying coverage from year to year. Results are based on mill returns supplemented by field enumeration for decennial census years and 1942; for other years (not including 1943) on mill returns only, except as indicated in headnote table 780. Data for 1943 are derived from the complete enumeration in certain Western States and of larger mills in the Eastern States, supplemented by estimates of the operations of smaller mills in the Eastern States based on a sample of mills. For a more detailed discussion, see Census of Forest Products, 1943]

No. 812.—LATH AND SHINGLES—PRODUCTION, 1899 TO 1943, AND BY STATES, 1940 TO 1943

[Lath in thousands and shingles in squares. Shingles were reported in thousands prior to 1933 and were converted to squares on the basis of 800 shingles to the square. See headnote, table 808 for explanation of lack of comparableness of statistics, because of incomplete coverage. The effect on total production statistics for lath is not known. Data for shingles are reasonably comparable over a period of years, because of complete enumeration of Red Cedar Shingle Industry, this industry's production comprising over 90 percent of total shingle production.]

¹ Beginning 1914 includes screenings.² Includes data for existing mills not classified as producers of pulp before 1940. In that year data for 6 mills not previously classified as producers of wood pulp were included for first time. For the same reason, an additional mill was included in 1941, and 2 more added in 1943.³ Includes data for 25 existing mills not previously classified as producers of paper and paperboard.⁴ Includes estimated production of insulating board for 1 mill. Estimates were made on assumption that production of this mill was proportionately the same in 1941 and 1942 as in 1943.

² 1944 figures include production of special industrial boards; figures for other years represent production of special industrial paper, only.

³ Less than 500 tons.

⁴ Includes estimated production of insulating board for 1 mill. Estimates were made on the assumption that production of this mill was proportionately the same in 1941 and 1942 as in 1943.

⁵ Includes tube stock, classified as all other paperboard in subsequent years.

¹ Figures for turpentine and rosin from crude gum, beginning 1929-30, and from wood beginning 1932-34 relate to crop year ended Mar. 31. All other figures relate to calendar years.

² Figures compiled from data reported by establishments in Turpentine and Rosin industry.

³ Figures compiled from data reported by establishments in Wood-Distillation industry.

⁴ Not reported.

⁵ Includes, for 1909 and 1914, 18,310 gallons and 92,401 gallons, respectively, of turpentine and, for 1914, 4,495 barrels of rosin, reported by establishments engaged in manufacture of lumber and timber products.

⁶ Estimated by J. E. Lockwood; complete data not available. Figures include estimates of rosin produced from reclaimed gum, as follows: 1932-33, 33,400 barrels; 1933-34, 35,000; 1934-35, 34,000.

⁷ Includes estimates by J. E. Lockwood for production of turpentine from steam-distilled wood.

⁸ Includes data for rosin produced from reclaimed gum: For 1935-36, 54,187 barrels; 1936-37, 42,694; 1937-38, 26,271; 1938-39, 39,979; 1939-40, 39,268; 1940-41, 25,228; 1941-42, 24,706; 1942-43, 14,121; 1943-44, 12,280.

⁹ Figures do not include data for rosin produced from reclaimed gum. See note 8.

28. Fisheries

GENERAL NOTE

The Fish and Wildlife Service, Division of Commercial Fisheries in the Department of the Interior, conducts annual surveys for various statistical information on the fishery industries. These data are published in greater detail in publications of the Service and include data on the volume of the catch of individual species of fish and shellfish and their value, employment in the fisheries, quantity of gear operated, the number of fishing and transporting craft employed in the capture and transporting of fishery products, employment in wholesale and manufacturing establishments, and volume and value of the production of manufactured fishery products. In addition to the basic statistics on employment, yield, and the production of manufactured fishery products for individual States and various geographical sections, there are included in reports data on imports and exports of fishery commodities; landings by fishing vessels at Boston, Gloucester, and New Bedford, Massachusetts; Portland, Maine; and Seattle, Washington; shad fisheries of the Hudson and Potomac Rivers; alewife fishery in the Potomac; seed oyster fisheries; a review of the Pacific Coast halibut fishery; a statement on whaling operations by United States firms; data on the sponge fishery; and lists of firms producing various manufactured fishery products. These data are summarized in the Statistical Abstract. The more detailed information may be obtained from the Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington 25, D. C.

NO. 821.—FISHERY PRODUCTS—QUANTITY AND VALUE, BY SECTIONS AND STATES: 1880 TO 1942

NOTE.—Values in this table and tables 822 to 824 represent the value of the fish to the fishermen.

No. 832.—MINERAL INDUSTRIES—SUMMARY FOR THE UNITED STATES: 1919, 1929, AND 1939

NOTE.—Statistics cover producing operations only. In general, those for 1939 cover only those operations (or concerns producing crude petroleum, natural gas, and natural gasoline, and rendering oil- and gas-field services) for which total value of all products, reported principal expenses, cost of buildings, machinery, and equipment during the year, or cost of drilling and equipping wells during the year amounted to $2,500 or more. For bituminous coal and lignite an output criterion of 1,000 tons of coal was substituted for value of all products. Statistics for the common sand and gravel industry exclude data for operations that produced less than 15,000 tons of sand and gravel unless reported principal expenses or cost of buildings, machinery, and equipment during the year amounted to $15,000 or more. Statistics for 1929 cover, in general, only those "enterprises" for which total value of all products or cost of development work amounted to $2,500 or more. Bituminous coal and lignite mines that produced less than 1,000 tons of coal and common sand and gravel operations that produced less than 25,000 tons of sand and gravel, were excluded. Statistics for 1919 exclude data for "enterprises" for which value of all products was less than $500 or cost of development work was less than $5,000. Noncommercial production of stone and sand and gravel obtained from mines or quarries operated by governmental agencies, public utilities, or by construction companies or contractors producing wholly for their own use or on contract for governmental agencies is excluded for all years.

² Excludes the common clay and shale, common sand and gravel, glass-sand, foundry-sand, natural sodium compounds, peat, potash, and rock salt industries, and limestone mines and quarries operated in conjunction with cement and lime plants for comparability with 1919.

³ Includes value of crude minerals produced, value added during the year by preparation processes, receipts for services performed for other concerns, and value of electric energy generated and sold.

⁴ Represents statistics for skilled and unskilled employees who perform manual labor, use tools, operate machines, handle materials, and care for property. The average numbers of wage earners were derived by adding the numbers reported for each month and dividing the sums by 12.

⁵ Represents statistics for salaried employees at operations and at central and branch offices, including officers of corporations, managers, superintendents, and other supervisory personnel, responsible professional and technical employees, and clerical employees. The number of salaried employees represents a number receiving pay on a representative or normal day or pay-roll period—for 1939, during the normal year period ending nearest Oct. 14; for 1929, on Dec. 14 or on the nearest representative day; for 1919, Dec. 15 or on the nearest representative day. Salaries represent the total amount paid to salaried employees during the calendar year.

⁶ Represents statistics for proprietors and firm members at operations and at central and branch offices.

⁷ Census statistics not available.

⁸ For 1939 includes installation costs, which are excluded for 1929.

Statistics for 1939 and 1929 refer to equipment in use or available for use at the end of the year.

⁹ Includes equipment, with rating of 8,865 horsepower, operated by purchased power other than electric energy.

¹ Companies with operations in more than 1 industry are counted only once in the totals.

² See note 3, table 832. ³ See note 4, table 832. ⁴ See note 5, table 832. ⁵ See note 6, table 832.

⁶ Represents permanent additions and major alterations (including installation costs); minor additions and replacements and the cost of land are excluded.

⁷ See note 9, table 832.

⁸ Includes amounts received by or due contractors for services performed during the year.

⁹ Includes statistics for 334 salaried employees paid $1,091,000 at central offices that served more than mineral industry.

¹¹ Oil- and gas-field contractors were not asked to report expenditures for buildings, machinery, and equipment, and contractors performing general services for mineral industries were asked to report only combined expenditures for these items, which amounted to $150,000. These expenditures are not included in totals shown.

¹² Crude petroleum, 1,228,133,816 barrels (42 gallons); natural gas, 2,929,184,828 M cu. ft., of which 2,287,413,256 M cu. ft. were marketed.

¹³ Thousands of gallons.

¹⁴ Includes data for 58 strip-pit and culm-bank contractors.

¹⁵ Excludes, to avoid duplication, $10,618,000 paid strip-pit and culm-bank contractors by colliery companies.

¹⁶ Tons of 2,240 pounds.

Contractors engaged chiefly in development work for other concerns in the mineral industries; Pennsylvania anthracite strip-pit and culm-bank contractors are excluded. Statistics for contractors performing oil and gas-field services exclude data for oil- and gas-field work performed on contract by concerns that also mined oil and gas wells for their own account unless separate reports were obtained for each of these two activities. Statistics are also excluded for concerns rendering oil- and gas-field services or producing petroleum, natural gas, or natural gasoline whose reports covering these activities indicated that the value of products and services rendered, nor reported principal expenses, nor cost of buildings, machinery, and equipment, nor cost of drilling and equipping wells amounted to as much as $2,500 during the year.

Statistics for contractors performing general services for mineral industries exclude data for concerns that received or were due less than $2,500 for work done during 1939.

* Represents amounts received or due for services performed during the year.

† Statistics cover, in general, only those operations that had reported principal expenses or cost of build: machinery, and equipment during the year of at least $2,500; for common sand and gravel the reporting minimum was $15,000. Statistics include data for oil- and gas-field operations in States in which reporting concerns had no products, provided the concerns were large enough to come within the scope of census as defined in footnote of table 832.

No. 835.—MINERAL PRODUCTS OF THE UNITED STATES—QUANTITIES AND VALUES: 1930 TO 1943

NOTE.—Data cover continental United States and, for leading products, outlying areas. Certain of the figures represent shipments rather than quantity mined, and some of the figures for 1943 are preliminary. Total values of metallic and nonmetallic products include figures when the Bureau of Mines is not at liberty to publish and estimated figures for certain products for which data are not available. In some cases, neither quantity nor value can be shown and those products are not listed here but data for them are included in the totals. On the other hand, values for certain products, such as coke, are excluded from the totals to eliminate duplication, since the value of the products derived therefrom, or of raw materials used, are accounted for under other items. Short tons are 2,000 pounds; long tons, 2,240 pounds.

¹ From both domestic and foreign ores. Beginning 1935, data represent antimonial lead produced at primary refineries from both primary and secondary sources, and are not comparable with data for prior years; estimate of value of primary antimony and lead content of antimonial lead from domestic sources included in total value of metallic products.

² Content of antimonial lead. Value of this antimony in antimonial lead excluded from total value.

³ Largely from foreign ore beginning 1936. Value not included in total value. Bureau of Mines not at liberty to publish value figures or quantity figures for 1940-1942.

⁴ Figures not available or Bureau of Mines not at liberty to publish them; value included in total value of metallic or nonmetallic products.

⁵ Product from domestic ore only.

⁶ Value does not include premiums paid miners by the Government. Total premiums for copper, lead, and zinc amounted to approximately $26,000,000 in 1942 and $28,000,000 in 1943.

⁷ According to Bureau of the Mint; valued at $20.67+ per ounce through 1930, at $25 per ounce in 1935 and subsequent years.

⁸ Value not included in total value; see heading note.

⁹ Value calculated at nominal price, 27 cents per pound.

¹⁰ Figures not available.

¹¹ According to Bureau of the Mint.

¹² Less than $100.

¹³ Figures obtained through cooperation with Bureau of the Census. For 1940, total is estimate based on figures issued by Bureau of the Census as somewhat incomplete. For 1941-43 there was no census; total for clay products is estimate by Bureau of Mines; no estimate was made for sand-lime brick. Beginning 1937, value of clay products exclude value of pottery and earthenware.

¹⁴ Petroleum, brown coal, lignite, and anthracite mined elsewhere than in Pennsylvania.

¹⁵ Quantities as reported by Department of the Interior, National Bituminous Coal Division; values include selling expenses.

¹⁶ Gypsum mined. After 1936, value of crude at mine; for earlier years, value as sold (crude and calcined).

¹⁷ Figures for the fiscal year ended June 30 of year preceding in prior years shown.

¹⁸ Figures not available; value included in total value of nonmetallic products.

¹⁹ Figures not available; value included in total value of nonmetallic products.

²⁰ Skilled blue lead, sublimed white lead, leaded zinc oxide, and zinc oxide.

²¹ Figures not available.

²² No data was. Estimate of value included in total value of nonmetallic products.

²³ Includes soapstone used as dimension stone.

²⁴ From lead and zinc smelters and zinc roasters and from roasting of high-sulfide gold and silver concentrates.

²⁵ For 1940, figures exclude soapstone. For 1935 and thereafter, figures cover tale, pyrophyllite, and ground soapstone. Dimension soapstone is included in stone value of soapstone in 1930 is included in total value of nonmetallic products; Bureau of Mines not at liberty to publish figures.

No. 836.—MINERAL PRODUCTION, BY STATES AND FOR ALASKA: 1937 TO 1939

NOTE.—The sum of the State totals in the table below does not agree with the total for the United States given in tables 830 and 835 chiefly because of the following reasons: (1) Figures for certain of the products included in the United States total are not available by State of origin; (2) the use of iron ore values State totals and pig iron values in United States total; (3) the use of mine figures for gold, silver, copper, lead, and zinc in the State totals and mint and smelter figures in the United States total; and (4) inclusion of estimates in the United States total for a few products for which no canvass has been conducted for many years and for which no estimate by States is made.

No. 839.—PIG IRON AND FERRO-ALLOYS AND STEEL INGOTS AND CASTINGS—PRODUCTION, EXPORTS, AND IMPORTS: 1871 TO 1943

NOTE.—In long tons (2,240 pounds). Prior to 1901 exports and imports are for years ended June 30 following year specified; calendar years thereafter. Imports are imports for consumption beginning with 1933. All production figures are for calendar years. For figures for earlier years, see Abstract for 1943.

No. 844.—IRON AND STEEL—AGGREGATE EXPORTS: 1890 TO 1942

—This table covers products listed in table 845 and therefore does not include data for highly elaborated products of iron and steel. Value figures for 1921 and prior years exclude, and those for 1922 and subsequent years include, data for small items for which quantity figures are not available. Data for manganese are included for all years. Data for steam and hot-water heating boilers and radiators, formerly classified as heavy iron and steel products, have been excluded for 1922 and subsequent years.

o. 848.—COPPER—PRODUCTION, EXPORTS, IMPORTS, AND CONSUMPTION: 1910 TO 1943

NOTE.—All quantities except are produced in millions and tenths of millions of pounds. Production figures include continental United States and Alaska. Owing to the varying stages of production, the stocks in different classes of hands, the redistribution of copper previously purchased, the recovery and use of old copper, etc., calculations of consumption are somewhat uncertain. The American Bureau of Metal Statistics presents consumption estimates rather widely different from those given below. Consumption as shown represents the quantity of copper withdrawn on domestic account, but not actual domestic consumption, as no account is taken of consumers' stocks.

No. 855.—NONFERROUS METALS AND ALLOYS AND FINISHED PRODUCTS THEREOF—PRODUCTION, BY KIND: 1935, 1937, AND 1939

NOTE.—Table shows products made for sale and interstate transfer, excluding those made for consumption in same works. Data represent production of commodities specified, whether made as primary or secondary products by industries reporting them. The census designations of industries in which the commodities are made are as follows: "Alloying and rolling of nonferrous metals and cast alloys," "Secondary smelting and refining of nonferrous metals not elsewhere classified," "Various metal industries (except aluminum)," and "Nonferrous metal products not elsewhere classified." No data are included for production of copper, lead, zinc, and other nonferrous metals from the ore and secondary metals by establishments engaged in primary smelting and refining of nonferrous metals.

No. 858.—GOLD AND SILVER—PRODUCTION IN CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES, ALASKA, PUERTO RICO, AND PHILIPPINE ISLANDS: 1792 TO 1943

NOTE.—The value of gold, in terms of money, being at a fixed rate, is not shown in the table. Gold is valued at $30.67+ per fine troy ounce from 1837 through 1933. In 1933, however, varying higher prices prevailed subsequent to the Executive order of Aug. 29. The value of gold production for 1933, as computed by the Bureau of Mines, was $65,388,000, including $82,942,000 calculated at legal coinage value ($35.57+ per ounce) plus $12,485,000 premium calculated at average weighted price ($25.56 per ounce). On Jan. 1, 1934, the legal value of gold was fixed at $35 per fine ounce. The value of silver given is commercial value, except for 1921 to June 1923 and beginning 1934 (see footnotes 1 and 2), which has differed materially from coinage value.

² Value 1934-37 calculated on basis of average amount per ounce returned to depositors of newly-mined domestic silver: 1934, $0.64+ per fine ounce; 1935, $0.71875; 1936, $0.7745; 1937, $0.7735. Value thereafter calculated on basis of amount per fine ounce returned to depositors of newly-mined domestic silver produced: In 1938, $0.6464+; 1939, $0.6787+; 1940-43, $0.7111+.

360.—SILVER—PRICES, LONDON AND NEW YORK, AND VALUE IN THE DOLLAR: 1835 TO 1943

The London price is converted to the basis of the ounce 1,000 fine and converted to American by at par of exchange through 1930; thereafter, at the current rate of exchange. London quotations in depreciated currency after Sept. 21, 1931, also in some prior year periods, including 1918 to 1924. York quotations are in depreciated currency after early March 1933. The commercial ratio is computed on the basis of London quotations through 1914; thereafter, on the basis of the New York average. Beginning with 1934 the monetary value of gold is $35.00 per fine ounce as compared with $20.67+ previous years. The value of fine silver ($71.4 grains) in the dollar is computed on the basis of London quotations through 1917; thereafter, on the basis of the New York average price.

No. 863.—COAL—PRODUCTION, 1821 TO 1948, AND BY STATES, 1916 TO 1943

NOTE.—Quantities in thousands of short tons (2,000 pounds); values in thousands of dollars. Includes coal consumed at mines. Figures for anthracite relate to Pennsylvania output only; those for bituminous relate to continental United States and Alaska. Bituminous coal includes lignite and small amounts of anthracite outside Pennsylvania. Comparatively little coal is held in stock at the mines.

Exclusive of product of mines producing less than 1,000 tons. ¹ Estimated from various sources; includes selling expenses, except for 1930, when such expenses were excluded except in a few cases.

Preliminary.

Included with Kansas.

² Includes Oklahoma.

⁴ Includes Missouri.

⁵ Included with Arkansas.

¹ Figures for bituminous coal represent average value per ton less selling expense (Bur. of Mines series) prior to 1937; thereafter, average gross realization including selling expense (Bit. Coal Div. series).

² Based on total production as shown in table 863.

³ Calculated at 303.5 working days in the anthracite field and 308 working days in the bituminous field.

No. 869.—NATURAL GAS AND NATURAL GASOLINE—PRODUCTION, 1906 TO 1943, AND BY STATES, 1930 TO 1943

NOTE.—Quantities of gas in millions of cubic feet, of gasoline in thousands of gallons; values in thousands of dollars. Production figures for gas refer only to that marketed, in addition to which considerable quantities are used by producers, and large quantities are wasted or lost. Values given are at the point of consumption. Consumption figures by States differ greatly from production figures by reason of interstate transportation.

O. 871.—MANUFACTURED-GAS AND NATURAL-GAS INDUSTRIES—SUMMARY: 1936 TO 1943

Population served and number of customers in thousands, gas produced, purchased, and sold in millions of cubic feet; revenue in thousands of dollars. Companies formerly distributing manufactured gas, but which were distributing natural gas at the beginning of 1943 have been excluded from the figures for manufactured gas and included with those for natural gas for all years shown in this table. Companies selling mixed manufactured and natural gas are included with data for manufactured gas. Figures for natural gas do not include natural gas used in field operations or in the manufacture of carbon black, or gas used by distributing companies in the conduct of their gas operations]

30. Manufactures

[Statistics in this section relate to continental United States except as noted. For additional statistics on manufactured food products, mineral products, and forest products, see sections 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29.]

GENERAL NOTE.—The Census of Manufactures was taken decennially prior to 1899 and for each fifth year thereafter through 1919, and has been taken every second year from 1921 to 1939. However, the Census of Manufactures for 1941 has been abandoned as directed by Executive Order No. 9152, in the interests of more important work related to the Nation's war effort. The censuses for 1904, 1909, 1914, and 1919 covered all factories or plants whose products were valued at $500 or more, but, beginning with 1921, the minimum limit has been $5,000. As a rule, the term "establishment" signifies a single plant or factory, but in some cases an establishment operates two or more factories and in a few cases two or more departments of a single plant or factory are treated as separate establishments. At the censuses for 1937 and 1939, however, an establishment operating two or more factories was counted as two or more establishments. The total number of establishments was increased approximately 2,000 by this change.

"Value of products" represents selling value at the plant or factory. Because of the use of the products of some establishments as materials for others, the total cost of materials and the total value of products for all industries in a given group, and for all groups in the aggregate, include much duplication, estimated at roughly one-third of the gross value of products. Such duplication is not, however, found to any great extent within individual industries.

The 1939 Census of Manufactures questionnaire, for the first time, called for personnel employed in distribution, construction, etc., separately from the manufacturing employees of the plants, and therefore the data for earlier years probably are not strictly comparable with those for 1939. It is not known how many of the wage earners and the salaried employees reported at previous censuses were engaged in distribution and construction and how many were engaged in manufacturing.

It is sometimes necessary, for various reasons but chiefly because of changes in census classification, to make adjustments in the figures for earlier census years. Adjustments have been made in the figures beginning with 1899 as a result of the exclusion from the Census of Manufactures since 1929 of the industries "Coffee and spice, roasting and grinding," "Flax and hemp, dressed," "Gas, illuminating and heating," "Grindstones," "Motion pictures, not including projection in theaters," "Peanuts, walnuts, and other nuts, processed or shelled," and "Railroad repair shops" (both steam and electric).

Detailed quantity and value figures for products of selected manufacturing industries are presented in certain of the census tables in this section and in sections 25, 26, 27, and 29. The "total value" figures for the respective industries, as given in those tables, differ from the values of products of the corresponding industries, as given in table 902, because of the inclusion in the product-value totals in those tables, but not in the values of products for the corresponding industries in table 902, of data for the respective classes of commodities made as minor or secondary products by establishments engaged primarily in other lines of manufacture.

¹ Value of products less cost of materials, containers, fuel, and purchased electric energy.

² For all establishments having products valued at $500 or more.

³ Reduced to gold basis.

⁴ For all establishments having products valued at $5,000 or more.

⁵ Includes cost of contract work.

⁶ Calculated by subtracting sum of cost of materials, containers, fuel, purchased electric energy, and cost of contract work from value of products. Not strictly comparable with years prior to 1935.

of the change from $500 to $5,000 in the minimum-value-of-products limit, the "Number of establishments reporting power equipment" figures for 1919 and earlier years are not comparable with those for 1939. This change did not, however, materially impair the comparableness of the figures for 1939 in this table.

MANUFACTURES—SUMMARY FOR INDUSTRY GROUPS, 1929 TO 1939,
AND FOR SUBGROUPS AND INDUSTRIES, 1937 AND 1939

Figures given in this table do not represent exactly the numbers of wage earners, values of c., assignable to the classes of commodities from which the industries derive their names, necessary for census purposes to classify each establishment as a whole in some one industry, its product of chief value, although in many cases a single establishment manufactures classes of commodities. See also general note, p. 794.

I.—MANUFACTURES—SUMMARY FOR INDUSTRIAL AREAS: 1937 AND 1939

he term industrial area signifies an area having as its nucleus an important manufacturing city prising the county in which the city is located, together with any adjoining county or counties there is great concentration of manufacturing industry. The industrial areas by constituent are as follows: Akron area—Summit County; Albany-Schenectady-Troy area—Albany, Rensselaer and Schenectady Counties; Allentown-Bethlehem area—Lehigh and Northampton Counties; Baltimore area—Baltimore City and Baltimore County; Boston area—Essex, Middlesex, Norfolk, and Suffolk Counties; Bridgeport-New Haven-Waterbury area—Fairfield and New Haven Counties; Buffalo area—Buffalo County; Chicago area—Cook, Du Page, Kane, Lake, and Will Counties, Ill., and Cook County, Ind.; Cincinnati area—Butler and Hamilton Counties, Ohio, and Campbell and Kenton Counties, Ky.; Cleveland area—Cuyahoga and Lorain Counties; Dayton area—Montgomery County; Detroit area—Oakland and Wayne Counties; Hartford area—Hartford County; Indianapolis area—Marion County; Kansas City area—Clay and Jackson Counties, Mo., and Wyandotte County, Kans.; Los Angeles area—Los Angeles County; Milwaukee area—Kenosha, Milwaukee, and Racine Counties; Minneapolis area—Dakota, Hennepin, and Ramsey Counties; New York City-Newark-Jersey City area—Bronx, Kings, New York, Queens, Richmond, and Westchester Counties, N. Y., and Bergen, Hudson, Middlesex, Passaic, and Union Counties, N. J.; Philadelphia-Camden area—Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia Counties, Pa., and Burlington, Camden, and Gloucester Counties, N. J.; Pittsburgh area—Allegheny, Beaver, Washington, and Westmoreland Counties; St. Louis area—St. Louis County, Mo., and Madison and St. Clair Counties, Ill.; San Francisco-Oakland area—Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo Counties; Scranton-Wilkes-Barre area—Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties; Seattle-Tacoma area—King and Pierce Counties; Springfield-Holyoke area—Hampden County; Toledo area—Lucas County; Wheeling area—Brooke, Hancock, and Ohio Counties, W. Va., and Belmont, Columbiana, and Jefferson Counties, Ohio; Worcester area—Worcester County; Youngstown area—Mahoning and Trumbull Counties, Ohio, and Lawrence and Mercer Counties, Mo. [Data for chemicals shown are restricted to a selected group comprised for most part of inorganic chemicals and related products which are sufficiently important economically to justify publication. A few important items are excluded for security reasons or because comparable data are not available. Data production by Government-owned arsenals, ordnance works, and certain plants operated for Government by private industry are excluded, except that data for chemicals manufactured by Tennessee Valley Authority are included]

No. 907.—WOOLEN AND WORSTED MANUFACTURES—PRODUCTION, BY KIND 1939 TO 1944

[Woolen and worsted woven goods are defined as fabrics containing by weight 25 percent or more wool fiber. Wool fiber means fibers as defined by the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939. Data beginning with 1942 are not strictly comparable with those published in the census of Manufactures for 1939. Detailed information on military fabrics was required by the war agencies, and in most cases, information was collected by type of fabric rather than by end use. Consultations with the military agencies provided the basis for estimating the end use of each type of fabric. Fortunately, for purposes of comparison with 1939, the more important military fabrics were generally produced for a single end use in terms of the 1939 classification. The estimates occurred primarily in the men's wear fabrics, and involved less than 15 percent of the total apparel fabrics produced. Production figures of women's and children's wear fabrics were collected by weight of fabric instead of end use. In the Census of Manufactures for 1939 data were collected from this industry on a square-yard basis; the present series requires the reporting of linear yards, with narrow fabrics converted to a 54-inch width. The 1939 data have been converted to a 54-inch linear yard measure by dividing the quantity of square yards by 1½, excepting blankets that were converted to a 72-inch linear yard measure by dividing the quantities of square yards by 2.]

¹ The measure used in 1939 was square yards. Data have been converted to a 54-inch linear yard measure, excepting blankets which have been converted to a 72-inch linear yard measure. Data for 1942, 1943, and 1944 on narrow fabrics were converted by reporting companies to a 54-inch linear yard measure.

² Includes data for military fabrics which were reported by types. Estimates as to end use classification were made on less than 15 percent of the total quantity of apparel fabrics.

³ Data for 1939 and for 1942 were collected as to end use. 1943 and 1944 data were collected by weight of fabric.

⁴ Data not available.

⁵ An unknown quantity of these fabrics are included in the women's and children's wear classification.

⁶ Includes data for papermakers' felts which were not collected separately for 1942.

RAYON MANUFACTURES—SEMIANNUAL PRODUCTION, BY TYPE:
JULY 1943 TO DECEMBER 1944

Production of rayon broad woven fabrics containing by weight 51 percent or more rayon. The fabrics are either 100 percent rayon or rayon mixtures containing 51 percent or more rayon with cotton or other fibers. However, if wool fibers are added to the extent of 25 percent or more, the fabrics are classed as woolen mixtures and are not included with the fabrics listed in this table. After January 1, 1945, detailed data for this industry were not compiled until 1945. These data are preliminary to meet requirements of war agencies and are not comparable with Census of Manufactures 1944 figures are preliminary]

In and trolley-line insulators for 1937 and earlier years.

Olive generators for battery charging; for 1937 and 1939, data are included in "Auto-equipment" industry.Transformers; for 1935, 1937, and 1939, data are included in radio apparatus in "Communications" industry.

Which in later years are included in other motors and parts and supplies.

Not reported by kind. See note 5 also.

Electric; parts and supplies included with automotive starter motors in "Automotive electrical" industry.

Automotive starter motors only.

Starter motors and parts and supplies for other motors, see note 7.

Tubes; for later years data are included in nonradio electronic tubes and X-ray tubes therapeutic apparatus and electronic tubes" industry.

No. 927.—COTTON SPINDLES, COTTON CONSUMPTION, AND STOCKS

NOTE.—The statistics for 1915 to 1944 relate to the 12 months ended July 31 and those for prior years the 12 months ended Aug. 31. Consumption and stocks are expressed in running bales, counting one as half bales, except that all figures, 1840 to 1870, inclusive, and foreign cotton for all years are in equivalent 500-pound bales. The number of active cotton spindles represents spindles operated at some time during the year, and is not as satisfactory a measure of activity of the industry as active spindle hours.

1.—TOBACCO, LEAF—AMOUNTS CONSUMED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF GARS, CIGARETTES, CHEWING AND SMOKING TOBACCO, AND SNUFF

1 figures in thousands of pounds. Figures represent the equivalent in unstemmed leaf tobacco ed leaf or scraps, cuttings, and cullings. In the following table the tobacco used in the manufac- gars and cigarettes was converted on the basis of 3 pounds of stemmed leaf or scraps, etc., to 4 of unstemmed beginning 1915 (conversion prior to 1915 was at the ratio of 3 to 5) and of tobacco f beginning 1903. For 1896 to 1902, tobacco used in manufactured tobacco and snuff was shown er two heads, namely "leaf" and "scraps." It is probable that stemmed leaf was included temmed tobacco under the head of "leaf" without the one kind being converted to the equivalent er. The conversion ratio of 3 to 4 was applied only to "scraps" for these years. Data exclude sed in bonded manufacturing warehouses.

. 985.—MOTION-PICTURE PRODUCTION—SUMMARY: 1921 TO 1939

Money figures are in thousands of dollars. Data represent the activities of the motion-picture and laboratories. They do not include the distribution of films and their projection in theaters. are included for establishments which reported less than $5,000 as the cost of work done. The picture industry has been canvassed, since 1921, in connection with the Biennial Census of Manufactures. It is not, however, a manufacturing industry, but was treated as such prior to 1931.

No. 937.—ALASKA—MANUFACTURES, BY INDUSTRIES: 1899 TO 1939

NOTE.—The figures for 1939 do not include data for plants reporting products valued at less than $250 those for earlier years cover all plants having products valued at $500 or more. This increase in the minimum value-of-products limit resulted in some reduction in the "Number of establishments" reported as compared with what it would have been had the minimum of $500 been retained, but did not sensibly impair the comparableness of the figures for 1939 with those for earlier years. Comparable figures in earlier years are given for all industries for which such figures are available.

31. Distribution and Services

[Data in this section relate to continental United States]

No. 941.—MANUFACTURERS' SALES—DISTRIBUTION, BY PRIMARY CHANNEL, BY INDUSTRY GROUPS: 1929, 1935, AND 1939

NOTE.—No data are included for the following classes of industries: (1) Those in which no sales were made, the plants being maintained for the purpose of making repairs; (2) those in which plants were engaged primarily in performing labor on materials owned by others so that their sales represented sales of services rather than commodities. This table is limited to industries for which the 1929, 1935, and 1939 figures are directly comparable, whereas table 942 covers all industries for which 1939 figures are available. For comparative purposes, data covering direct export are excluded.

¹ Includes sales of certain milk dealers in the amount of $130,000,000, not included in summary tables for 1929-1933. Data for these concerns were received too late for inclusion in summary tables for 1929.

² Much of the increase in sales of filling stations from 1929 to 1939 results from a change in class. Garages primarily selling gasoline and oil were classified separately as garages in the 1929 Census Trade and were included in the filling station category in the 1939 Census of Retail Trade.

³ Comparable data are not available.

No. 957.—SALES OF NEW PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES—INDEXES OF DOLLAR SALES ADJUSTED FOR SEASONAL VARIATIONS: 1929 TO 1941

[The index represents consumer outlay on new passenger automobiles relative to the base period 1935-36. It is based on the actual number of new cars sold by dealers each month, converted to a dollar basis by the application of an estimated average price per car. The number of cars sold was reported each month to the Automobile Manufacturers' Association and represented 95 percent of all dealers' sales. Series discontinued for the duration of the war.]

¹ Employees and pay roll include paid executives of corporations but not number and compensation of proprietors of unincorporated businesses.

² Statistics for 1935, adjusted for comparison, are as follows: Number of establishments, 631,300; receipts, $3,000,699,000. The adjustment was made by revising the original 1935 figures to include certain kinds of business that were not included in the Service Census but were published in other census reports and by excluding others which were within the scope of the 1935 census but were omitted from the 1939 census. For a comparison of the two items by industries, see source.

³ For figures for earlier years, see table 961, p. 886.

⁴ Includes manufacturing plants with products valued at less than $5,000 and therefore not covered by the Census of Manufactures.

360.—SERVICE ESTABLISHMENTS—SUMMARY, BY STATES: 1939

ensus of service establishments covers a heterogeneous group of establishments (see table primarily in the sale of service, as distinguished from establishments dealing in merchandise, professional field, the financial, educational, transportation, construction, and diverse other business activity, many of which are covered elsewhere, are not included. Owing to difference of the 1935 and 1939 censuses of service establishments, the aggregates for 1939 are not with those for 1935 as published in the 1937-40 issues of the Abstract.

No. 961.—POWER LAUNDRIES, CLEANING AND DYEING ESTABLISHMENTS, AND RUG CLEANING ESTABLISHMENTS—SUMMARY: 1919 TO 1939

NOTE.—All money figures in thousands of dollars. Statistics cover establishments reporting receipts of $5,000 or more, except for 1939 figures in italics, which represent establishments reporting receipts of $100 or more. The Census of Business for 1939 classified the establishments shown in this table as service establishments and covered those reporting receipts of $100 or more. See also table 969 for statistics for 1939. Statistics for 1935 and earlier years were compiled in connection with the Census of Manufactures. Rug cleaning was treated, in general, as an activity of the power laundry industry for 1929 and earlier years.

No. 962.—HOTELS—SUMMARY, 1929 TO 1939, AND BY SIZE, 1939

NOTE.—The census coverage of hotels is restricted, in the main, to establishments which are designated as hotels and which provide hotel accommodations as their major business activity. For 1935 and 1939 the canvass was limited to hotels having at least 6 guest rooms or having receipts from room rental amounting to at least $200 for a full year's operations. Because of differences in coverage for 1929, 1935, and 1939, comparable data are available only for year-round hotels having 25 or more guest rooms.

32. Construction and Housing

CONSTRUCTION IN THE UNITED STATES—ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES FOR PUBLIC AND PRIVATE CONSTRUCTION: 1929 TO 1944

represent the value of work performed during the year, as measured by expenditures for permit and other items. They consequently differ from building permit and construction which measure the value of work started. In addition, they have a generally broader permit and contract data. Figures include value and cost of installation of equipment, a great part of a structure, but not that of machinery, shipbuilding, or land costs. For 1929-33, approximately comparable with data below, see Statistical Abstract, 1942,

No. 966.—NEW DWELLING UNITS IN NONFARM AREAS, BY TYPE: 1920 TO 1943

[Figures are estimates covering construction of all new family dwelling units in the nonfarm area of the United States, based upon building-permit reports. This area consists of all urban and rural nonfarm places. The urban designation is applied to all incorporated places with a population of 2,500 or more in 1940, and, by special rule, to a small number of unincorporated civil divisions. Rural nonfarm construction includes all construction for nonagricultural use in unincorporated areas and incorporated places of less than 2,500 population. Hence, urban construction is classified by location, whereas rural nonfarm construction is classified according to the intended use of individual buildings]

9.—CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS AWARDED IN 37 STATES—VALUE OF CONSTRUCTION AND FLOOR SPACE OF BUILDINGS, BY CLASS OF CONSTRUCTION: TO 1943

For State figures, see table 970. Public works and public utilities cover some projects not measurable in terms of floor space, such as highways, pipe lines, subways, etc. Statistics for the 37 States were compiled for years prior to 1925, but available figures covering a varying number of States for earlier years have been published in the 1932 and previous issues of the Statistical Abstract. Figures for the Federal States and districts in table 970 represent the value of construction contracts awarded in the various districts where the work was actually done.

Values in millions and tenths of millions of dollars; floor space in thousands of square feet

—CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS AWARDED—INDEXES OF VALUE: 1919 TO 1944

1919 average=100. Indexes are derived from monthly figures of construction contracts awarded by the F. W. Dodge Corporation. Reports covered 37 States beginning with May 1924 and a number for earlier years. In order to obtain comparable figures from 1919 to date, the total value of construction contracts awarded in 37 States was estimated for January 1919 through April 1924. Statements were computed separately for "residential" and "all other" types of construction and then combined. The indexes are based on a 3-month moving average, centered at the middle or a more detailed description of the indexes, see the Federal Reserve Bulletin for July 1931.

No. 973.—BUILDING CONSTRUCTION IN CITIES OF 50,000 OR MORE INHABITANTS
—PERMIT VALUATION OF ALL CONSTRUCTION AND NUMBER OF NEW DWELLING UNITS: 1939 TO 1943:

[Valuation figures are derived from estimates of construction costs made by prospective private builders when applying for permits to build and the value of contracts awarded by Federal or State Government. No land costs are included. For type of building covered see table 967. Cities shown had a population of 50,000 and over in 1940] appraisal Co. Average for 30 cities of 4 types of buildings: Wood frame, brick-wood frame, reinforced concrete. Mechanicals not included. Based on actual appraisal costs. Available cities. Recently revised to include adjustments for social security taxes, unemployment corresponding "overhead."

General Contractors of America. Wages and materials for 12 cities combined in 40-60 ratio. Rates for hod carriers and common labor. Materials, weighted: sand, gravel and crushed 1; lumber, 1; hollow tile, 1/2; structural and reinforcing steel, 1/4.

News Record construction cost index has 4 components: (1) Structural steel shapes, base at Chicago; (2) lumber, which until 1935 was 12 x 12 long leaf yellow pine wholesale at New York; (3) 2 x 4 S4S pine and fir in carload lots, ENR 20-cities average; (4) common labor, average of wage rates in force. This construction cost index is designed to predict changes in trends and to measure the movement of construction costs in general. It is not intended for specific class of construction or to a particular locality. ENR Building Cost Index: In construction cost index has been used widely to apply to building costs, and when common rates move in similar trends it is a satisfactory measure of relative building cost movement. During the low wage rates of 1932, common labor climbed much faster than skilled and reached his by July 1937. The increase was in the lower ranges between union and nonunion. "g" wages became synonymous with union wages the gap closed up, hence the ENR 20-cities increased more rapidly than the union rates. To provide a more representative measure of movement, the skilled labor trend has been substituted for the common labor trend in the ENR Cost Index, and the ENR Building Cost Index computed.

McGraw-Hill & Assoc., Inc. Individual series for 10 types of buildings for 16 areas. Weights based on material building costs—vary with different type of structures. Material prices are those paid by material dealers. Prevailing skilled and common wage rates from contractors. Base: average, 1926-29=100. Series given here is brick and concrete, New York, converted to

New England, 7-story and basement (62'4" x 202'4"), reinforced concrete building built quarterly as a construction bid to duplicate original building. Labor costs based on current similar construction.

Miller Company. Composite of 36 major cost elements, in 3 commercial-type building, elevators, wiring, heating and ventilating, repriced.

Construction Co. Eastern cities. Own building cost experience applied to these factors: material prices, productivity of labor, efficiency of plant and management, competitive

No. 975.—MATERIALS CONSUMPTION FOR NEW CONSTRUCTION: 1944

[Data represent quantities of materials required by construction activity, both public and private in the United States during 1944. They are divided into 4 major categories: (1) Military, which covers Army and Navy establishments, camps, cantonments, hospitals, airfields and bases, storage facilities, etc. (2) Plant expansion, which includes the construction of industrial plants engaged in the production of ships, aircraft, and other war materials. (3) Housing, which represents civilian, nonmilitary housing, and (4) All other nonmilitary construction such as schools, hospitals, commercial establishments, streets, roads, sewer and water development, farm construction, and utilities. Estimates do not include materials consumed in the manufacture of machines, machine tool and processing equipment. Full definitions are available in the source publication]

No. 978.—CONSTRUCTION—SUMMARY, BY KIND OF CONTRACTOR, BY GROUPS: 1939

NOTE.—The 1939 Census of Construction covered all persons or establishments whose principal business in 1939 was utilizing construction materials and labor in construction work for others, or for their own speculative and investment purposes, on projects located within the limits of continental United States. It included erection and installation departments of manufacturers and merchandisers, who was an important but not necessarily major portion of their business enterprise. Force-account ship and boat building, and installation and servicing of domestic appliances were not included. "Work performed" represents contract or order value of work done by the contractor's or builder's own work sublet to others was not included as work performed in the report of the builder or general contractor, but was reported as part of the business of the special trade contractor who received the contract. "Construction work" includes alterations and repairs, as well as new construction additions. Data for establishments reporting less than $500 of work performed in 1939 are not included. The canvass is known to have been incomplete in coverage of small contractors who operated from homes. Most of this shortage occurred in metropolitan districts. It is believed that this undercount affects materially only number of establishments and number of proprietors.

CONSTRUCTION—SUMMARY FOR ESTABLISHMENTS REPORTING BUSINESS OF $25,000 OR MORE, BY STATES: 1929 AND 1939

1939 comparisons must be limited to establishments reporting business of $25,000 or more as covered only that size group. That size group in 1939 accounted for 77 percent of total performed by all contractors and builders regardless of size. Geographic distribution is address of reporting establishment, not location of construction project.

No. 990.—DWELLING UNITS, URBAN AND RURAL, BY ESTIMATED TOTAL MONTHLY RENT AND ESTIMATED TOTAL VALUE: 1940

[For urban and rural-nonfarm units, monthly rent and value include land; for farm units, land is excluded. Monthly rental data include contract rent of tenant-occupied nonfarm units and estimated rent of other units. Monthly rent of owner-occupied rural-farm units is an estimate based on 1 percent of value. Value of owner-occupied units represents the owners' estimate of the value. For tenant-occupied and vacant units value was estimated as 100 times the monthly rent. Value or rent of units for which these data were not reported was estimated by assuming that the average value or rent of such units was the same as the value or rent of reporting units in the corresponding tenure and occupancy group in urban and rural areas of each region.]

No. 994.—DWELLING UNITS, URBAN AND RURAL—NONFARM OR ESTIMATED MONTHLY RENT AND MEDIAN VALUE

NOTE.—The median may be defined as that item which is in the middle to size. Thus, the median rent is the rent which divides the total number of groups, one having rents higher than the median and one having rents lower than the median. Rental data include contract rent of tenant-occupied units and estimated rental data for "All dwelling units" include vacant units.

33. Climate

CLIMATIC DATA OF SELECTED CITIES, BY MONTHS

ata are gathered by the United States Weather Bureau at 5,500 stations, about 500 having hourly readings and the remaining 5,000 taking 1 observation a day. Observations have been ring lengths of time at each station. The earliest year of record is 1871 at many stations, e earlier, less detailed records began in the eighteenth century.

ing tables contain data from a carefully selected list of cities, chosen to give as general repre- climatic factors as is possible in the limited space available. The "Normals" are standard by the Weather Bureau as representative of conditions in the local area. These data are ad- r long-record stations in the vicinity when the period of record is not the same as for the stand-

In all other tables the averages represent the customary arithmetic average of the period of emperature data are in degrees Fahrenheit, precipitation in inches and hundredths, and snow- and tenths. Wind data are corrected to true velocities.

r of degree days as used in these tables is the sum of the positive differences between 65° and n temperatures. Experience has shown that, for buildings requiring an inside temperature of y 70°, the amount of fuel or heat used per day is proportional to the number of days the average rature falls below about 65°. The degree day is based on this principle.

umidity data represent averages based on three to four daily observations.

34. Public Lands

General Note

The term "public lands," as used here, includes only those Federally owned lands to which the general body of public land laws apply. (See title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.) In general, it includes the lands acquired by the United States through cession and treaty and certain other lands declared by Congress specifically to be "public lands," that is, subject to the public land laws. As a general rule, it excludes lands acquired by the United States from private owners and from State and local governments by purchase, donation, condemnation, etc. The term "Indian lands," used here to differentiate lands from other public lands, refers to lands ceded to the United States by Indian tribes and held in trust for the Indians by the Government.

An entry or selection is a claim to a given tract of public land. An original entry or selection is a claim allowed under the law but subject to certain conditions before title can pass. A perfected entry is a claim finally approved after required lapse of time and compliance with other conditions. A patent certification is an instrument of conveyance or grant to a claimant whose entry or selection has been so approved.

For table on trend in land utilization, see p. 604.

NO. 1023.—PUBLIC AND INDIAN LAND, ENTRIES UNDER ALL ACTS—ACREAGE, STATES: YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 1926 TO 1944

NOTE.—Offices are not maintained in States where only small areas of public lands remain undisposed entries in these States, if any, are made directly in the General Land Office (Washington, D. C.) figures are grouped under that heading in the following table. See also general note above.

APPROXIMATE WEIGHT OF PETROLEUM AND PRODUCTS

In the United States petroleum and its products are measured by bulk weight. Whether handled in containers or without them the quantities are tomanarily reduced to the equivalent of barrels of 42 United States gallons (which thus equals 158.984 liters). In many foreign countries these commodities are measured by weight. The specific gravity of the different grades of crude petroleum and of the finished products varies materially. On the basis of approximate averages the Department of Commerce in converting foreign weight statistics to gallons or barrels of 42 gallons uses the factors shown in the following table:

	WEIGHT OF UNITED STATES GALLON		WEIGHT OF BARREL OF 42 GALLONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SOURCES OF STATISTICAL DATA

GENERAL NOTE

This bibliography contains under the various subject headings references to the important primary sources of statistical information for the United States. Secondary sources have been referred to if the information contained therein is presented in a particularly convenient form or if primary sources are not readily available. One-time studies presenting compilations or estimates for seven years or new types of data not available in regular series are included.

Much valuable information will also be found in State reports and in reports for particular commodities, industries, or similar segments of our economic and social structure. However, because of the large number of such references, they are not included here.

Section references on the right hand side of each page indicate that data from the report cited appear in the Statistical Abstract. Where current reports and a summary volume are both cited in the bibliography the section reference will often appear opposite the summary volume only. Reference to the section indicated will enable the user to ascertain the type of information presented in the original source. However, it should not be assumed that all of the subjects from that source are summarized in the Abstract.

The location of the publisher of the report is given except for Federal governmental agencies located in Washington. Major inquiries, such as the Census of Population, are referred to by name rather than by specific volume reference under the various topic headings. The final reports of the Sixteenth Census which include those on the Censuses of Agriculture, Business, Manufactures, Mineral Industries, Population, and Housing, are listed at the end of the bibliography.
